

Data Analytical Problems Experienced In Therapeutic Riding Research And A Statistical Explanation To Some Of The Problems

Jeanette Pauw

Abstract: A research survey of therapeutic riding studies was conducted and general problems experienced by researchers were identified and are discussed briefly. Many researchers mentioned the discrepancy between the quantitative and the qualitative results. A possible explanation for this discrepancy is given.